HISTORY

St. Bartholomew's Day, August 24, fell on a Saturday in 1895. A young man was coming back from a swim in the Delaware River (this was 1895) when he saw a group of people gathered in a lot at Comly and Ditman Sts. Curious, he joined them and found that it was a ground-breaking ceremony for a new church. This same young man somewhat later was lay reader-in-charge of the mission and many years later was Bishop of Washington. He was Frank Creighton, father of the present Bishop of Washington.

Beginning as a parochial mission of St. Mark's, Frankford, St. Bartholomew's was incorporated as a parish in 1922. The tower over the Chancel is the original building, the nave was added later. The main altar was brought from St. Mark's when they built their present church. The altar cross goes back to the beginning of this parish. The chapel altar was probably the original altar of the mission.

The parish house was built in 1928. In September, 1963 a disastrous fire burned it out to the walls and very nearly took the church and rectory. The parish house was reopened on Rogation Sunday in 1964. Added features of the renovation are an acoustical ceiling, a library and a second floor chapel dedicated as "The Upper Room". The series of stained glass windows was recently completed; we hope you will visit us some time when daylight will allow you to see them better.

On the Feast of the Annunciation, Monday, March 25 at 10:00 a.m. we will be host to a corporate communion for all the churchwomen of Pennypack Deanery. Dean Clark will be here and the other clergy are invited, too. There will be coffee after the service.

THE ANNUNCIATION

The Annunciation is the first news of Christmas, that is, the announcement of the Incarnation. The coming of the Christ, so long hoped for in Israel, was at last promised to a simple, lovely young girl in the obscure village of Nazareth. She became what the poet calls "our tainted nature's solitary boast." The blessed Virgin Mary is the example of womanhood, and motherhood, at its best; she is indeed "blessed among women" as her cousin St. Elizabeth said.
All Christians, men and women, should honor
her for the example of cheerful obedience
she returned to God in response to a promise she could not then fully understand:
"Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word." God chose her as the vessel for the Incarnation, and it was her acceptance of His will that set the stage for the coming of Christ.
We, too are "bearers of the Word" (see hymn 599) as Mary was called in Christian worship from earliest times. As we leave this church today with Christ in us, it is our wonderful privilege and awesome duty to show Him to the world we encounter.

2hs

And we believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, who was "incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man".

The PASCHAL CANDLE symbolizes the risen Body of Christ with its glorified wounds. the candle will burn at all liturgical services until Ascension Day. The Paschal Candle is given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rook by their sons, Bruce and Brian.

The lamps being out and the church still in the darkness of the Tomb, new fire is struck symbolizing the new life of the risen Christ. From the Paschal Candle, the sanctuary lamp is rekindled to burn for another year. So the risen Christ sheds light in his Church.

The word "Paschal" comes from "Pesach" or "Passover, the Old Testament feast recalling the Exodus. The feasts of Easter and Passover are closely linked in meaning as well as in date. Both recall events which demonstrated God's victory over oppression and death. Both feasts teach that we can start anew and that the future is God's and that he will win.

The Eucharist will be celebrated at 8 and 11 a.m. next Sunday, the "octave" of Easter.

VISITORS are most welcome. If you have no home parish, the priest will be happy to speak to you about this church. The Rector will conduct a funeral at Riverview on Monday.

Easter Tuesday there will be Holy Eucharist at 10 a.m.

While we depend upon the book for the correct text of the Liturgy, it is helpful in worship to look up at certain times: primarily at the actions of the Offertory, Consecration, Breaking of Bread and at "Holy things for the people of God..." The Liturgy is celebrated facing the congregation for the greater visibility of these actions. We will be omitting the Confession and Absolution in Eastertide to accent the joy of the season.

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Jennie Meyer by her husband, Albert Meyer.

The candle in the Sanctuary Lamp is given this week in memory of Theresa F. Kern by her daughter, Theresa Kern.

There will be a meeting of Episcopal Community Services volunteers on Monday at 8 p.m. Coffee will be served. Interested persons are cordially invited to come.

Thursday is St. Mark's Day. The Eucharist will be offered at 10 a.m.

Samuel Beaton, 4626 Benner St., died last week and was buried Saturday. May he + rest in peace.

A memorial Requiem Eucharist will be offered in the church on Saturday at 10 a.m. for Candace Clothier. Those who knew her, especially those who were confirmed with her, are invited.

The Paschal Candle, which symbolizes the risen Christ, will burn throughout the forty days of Eastertide.

Readers: at 8 a.m., Mr. Dunn; at 11, Mr. Kern.

sented at Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel on Wednesday. The Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, the Rt. Rev. John E. Hines, will officiate.

Next Sunday is Rogation Sunday. The Feast of the Ascension occurs May 23. There will be both a morning and evening Eucharist
on that day.

The trial Liturgy combines the basic elements of Morning Prayer with the sacramental actions of the Eucharist. It may prove to be the hopeful solution to a divided parish worship - some at Eucharist, some at Morning Prayer. All the essentials of Morning Prayer are in the new Liturgy in the Ministry of the Word section, but there is now no need to add elements onto Morning Prayer, as the new Liturgy gives us offertory, sermon and the climax of all worship - participation by communion. We may have a solution here to all the destructive nonsense about "High" and "Low"
that has been dividing the Church all the years. We only hope it is not too late!

Collects for the Day are Trinity III - p. 192
St. Peter - p. 244
St. Paul - p. 258

We are commemorating the saint's day we did not observe yesterday. By ancient custom, St.
Paul is also commemorated on St. Peter's Day.

After five months' trial of the "new Liturgy"
we resume the use of the Book of Common Prayer today.

Altar flowers are given in memory of Candy
Clothier by a friend of the family.

During the summer flowers will be used only when there are specific memorials, otherwise there will be no flowers. If you wish to have memorial flowers, please submit same in the red-printed envelope on the prior Sunday.

According to the agreement of the clergy of the Diocese late last year, we have used the trial liturgy for five months. Today we resume the use of the Book of Common Prayer for the indefinite future, but at least throughout the summer schedule. The trial liturgy will be used again during the next three year period. With the resumption of the Prayer Book liturgy, the customary ceremonial will be resumed by the people, i.e., kneeling, etc. The priest, however, will attempt to celebrate facing the people,
and will make certain necessary adjustments.

The summer schedule begins today and will be in effect for the usual ten week summer period until September 1. Services will be at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. In order to re-adjust to the Book of Common Prayer, all summer services will be the Eucharist.

Holy Baptism will be ministered today at 11 a.m. to Lisa Ann Smith and Tina Marie Sellers, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Perdunn.

No service is planned for Independence Day.
There will be the usual observance at Old Christ Church, 2nd and Markets Sts.

REFLECTIONS

Up the diamond road we pass
to find the road is made of glass Down the river where gold does lay
to find the gold is made of clay

We scan the hill to see the sight
to find the view is really fright
What in the world did we acheive?
an ugly nightmare of make-believe

'Til we find the goings not so rough and the world we live in not so tough We'll break the glass and mold the clay
and find the view is really gay

And only then will we unseal
a magic world that is quite real.

If life were merely passing by
I'd hold my breath and give a sigh
But that's not the true story I fear
This life of mine goes on for years

I'm tired of eating, drinking and sex
I just can't wait for the world that's next
If you're wondering where this next world is It's the place where our God lives.

+ THE BLESSING OF BREAD +

(After the Sermon and before the Offertory, the Priest shall stand before the table on which bread is prepared and proceed to bless the same, the people standing.)

V. Our help + is in the Name of the Lord.
R. WHO HATH MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.
V. The Lord be with you.
R. AND WITH THY SPIRIT. Let us pray.

O LORD holy, Father Almighty, everlasting God, vouchsafe to bless this bread with thy spiritual benediction: that it may be to all who partake of it, health of mind and body and a defense against every snare of the enemy. Through thy Son JESUS CHRIST our Lord, the living bread, who came down from heaven and giveth life and salvation to the world; who with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. AMEN.

(Please take a portion of blessed bread with you as you leave the Altar after your communion. Let this blessed bread be eaten with thanks at a meal today. We wish that you would take any extra bread that remains after the second Eucharist and give it to a friend, telling him it is blessed.)

We thank thee, Lord, for this our food,
But more for Jesu's flesh and blood,
The manna to our spirits given,
The bread of life sent down from heaven.

NO. 7

I watched it drop before my face
as it made a final fall
Like striking crystals that form a lace
but yet it is so small

The beauty of the form it took
no words could ever tell Yet no second glance, a peep or look will fall upon this shell

For it resembles a thing of sadness
hate and sometimes fear
But I found beauty, joy and gladness
in a fallen tear.

~ AFTER THE BLESSING ~ FINISHED and perfected,
so far as is in our power,
O Christ our God,
is the mystery of thy dispensation.
For we have held the remembrance of thy death,
We have seen the figure of thy resurrection,
We have been filled with thine unending life,
We have had the fruition of thine own delight:
whereof in the world to come withal
be thou pleased that we all
be accounted worthy.

 NOTE: Mrs. Mellors, our organist, is on vacation today. We shall therefore sing the hymns, etc. a cappella. It is interesting to note that a cappella means "as in chapel" and refers to the earliest form of Church music, voices unaccompanied by instrument. Let us make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

The third session of the Northeast Seminar will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Ransom school hall, Unruh and the Blvd. The discussion will be about the religious community's function.

Saturday is St. Bartholomew's Day. The Eucharist will be celebrated twice, at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. A roast beef supper will be held after the evening service. If you have not returned a reservation slip, sign your name on the sheet in the narthex.

Those who are to make their communions at the 6 p.m. Eucharist should observe a fast of three hours prior to the service. Water does not break the fast.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who invisibly containest all things, and yet for the salvation of mankind dost visibly show the signs of thy power; glorify, we beseech thee, this temple with the might of thy indwelling; and grant that all who assemble here to entreat thy mercy, from the midst of whatsoever tribulations they call upon thee, may obtain the benefit of thy heavenly consolation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fairest Jesu, in this sacrament so dear;
We adore Thee, and implore Thee,
Fill our hearts with love and holy fear.

Pouring forth Thy sacred Blood on Calvary;
Lamb once slain, Who now dost reign,
We praise Thee on Thy glorious throne on high.

Fairest Jesu, whom our blessed Lady bore:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
In this Sacrament we Thee adore.

A Prayer for Tranquility

But if distractions manifold prevail,
And if in this we must confess we fail,
Grant us to keep at least a prompt desire,
Continual readiness for prayer and praise,
An altar heaped and waiting to take fire
With the least spark, and leap into a blaze.

Fairest Jesu, in this sacrament so dear;
We adore thee, and implore thee,
Fill our hearts with love and holy fear.

Pouring forth the sacred Blood on Calvary;
Lamb once slain, who now dost reign,
We praise thee on thy glorious throne on

Fairest Jesu, whom our Blessed Lady bore:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
In this sacrament we thee adore.

ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC AND APOSTOLIC CHURCH.

Priest. Dost thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

ANSWER. I RENOUNCE THEM ALL; AND, BY GOD'S HELP, WILL ENDEAVOR NOT TO FOLLOW, NOR BE LED BY THEM.

Priest. Dost thou believe in Jesus the Christ
the Son of the Living God?

ANSWER. I DO.

Priest. Dost thou accept him, and desire to follow him as thy Saviour and Lord?

ANSWER. I DO.

Priest. Dost thou believe all the articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

ANSWER. I DO.

Priest. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

ANSWER. I WILL, BY GOD'S HELP.

Priest. Let us pray. GRANT, we beseech thee, merciful God, that thy Church, being gathered together in unity by thy Holy Spirit, may manifest thy power among all peoples, to the glory of thy Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth
and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit,
one God, world without end. AMEN.

ALMIGHTY God, by whose grace and power thy holy martyr Alban triumphed over suffering, and despised death: Grant, we beseech thee, that enduring hardness, and waxing
valiant in fight, we may with the noble
army of martyrs receive the crown of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"God will not suffer his Word to fall to the ground, if we are true to him. What we speak in our own strength dies in the air. What we speak in the power of the Spirit is sure to travel on until it reaches the heart which God has prepared for it.

"The more truly we are given to God, the more possible it is for us to be his instruments in bringing others to him. We cannot bring any to him, but his peace shining through us can draw others to himself,
if there is nothing in ourselves to hinder
it."

The E.C.W. will meet Wednesday at

There will be no services here on Independence Day.

It is a custom of great antiquity
to commemorate St. Peter and St. Paul on the same day. The Prayer Book of 1549 did not keep this custom and later editions generally followed 1549. No prayer book is either infallible or all-inclusive. It is meaningful to remember together two great Apostles who gave their lives in Rome.

" . . . don't worry too much about people who stay away from the Church
because they find its worship incomprehensible or irrelevant. They always have! They are always with us. If they find it easier to worship God over the Sunday comic section there isn't much the Church can do to compete with that.
Cranmer at his best was no match for Peanuts in the worship experience of some Christians."

The above quotation is taken from the editor's comments on a "sermon" by a thirteen-year-old communicant. Read the whole story in next Sunday's issue of the Living Church.

The flags which fly from our houses
should be symbols of our belief that "all men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights ... among them
life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."
Our belief that "all men are innocent until proved guilty" and that "all men are created equal" are the true jewels of our nation's wealth. Freedom must be shared to be real freedom. The founding fathers had a dream about brotherly love which was learned from Christ, an unfulfilled dream which we must hold in our hearts.

R. WHO HATH MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.

V. ~~The~~ Lord be with you.

R. AND WITH THY SPIRIT. Let us pray.

O LORD, holy, Father Almighty, everlasting God, vouchsafe to bless this bread with thy spiritual benediction: that it may be to all who partake of it, health of mind
and body and a defense against every snare
of the enemy. Through thy Son JESUS CHRIST
our Lord, the living bread, who came down
from heaven and giveth life and salvation
to the world; who with thee, in the unity
of the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth
God, world without end. AMEN.

PLEASE TAKE a portion of blessed bread
as you leave the Altar after your Communion.
This bread is to be eaten with thanks at a meal today. We wish you would take any extra bread that remains after the second Eucharist and give it to a friend, telling him it is blessed. This blessing is derived from the archaic Lammass Day ("Loaf-Mass")
offering of the first grain of the harvest.
It was observed on August 1, but it seems that the Gospel for Trinity VII makes it an appropriate observance for today. Bread is symbolic of all good things which come from God.

"The soul which has found Jesus needs nothing more, for it has found everything. All is centered in the person of that dear Lord. All the utterances of God the Father by the mouth of his prophets pointed to the coming of God the Son in the flesh.

"When the soul has found Jesus,
it has the key to all the mysteries of creation. Creation is an enigma which cannot be solved without Jesus Christ. He is the key to creation, and the soul that has gained him is no longer driven about hither and

Dismissal

+ + + +

In the spirit of experimentation, which, within limits, is permitted in the trial liturgy, today we will speak the Dismissal after the liturgy from the door of the church. The idea is - the eucharistic service is now ended for a time, now go and live the eucharist.

The "trial liturgy" is being used at the present on all Sundays but the last Sunday in the month, when the Book of Common Prayer is used.

The Transfiguration of Christ will be celebrated on Wednesday with the Holy Eucharist at 10 a.m.

The committee in charge of dinner planning for the patronal festival will meet here on Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The committee planning for the fall bazaar will meet Thursday, August 14 at 7:30 p.m. This involves both day and evening groups of the E.C.W.

We are using an Easter hymn at the Offertory to demonstrate that every Sunday in the Church is a little Easter, a thanksgiving for the Lord's Resurrection.

"There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that you are able. . ."
-from today's Epistle

If you would know what the love and mercy of God are like, read carefully what the father does in today's Gospel. Consider his actions toward both the prodigal and the faithful son. Each of us at some time fits both descriptions.

"Therefore with Angels and Archangels,
and with all the company of heaven. . ."

- from the Preface

At the suggestion of members of the Altar Guild, we are anticipating St. Michael's Day by observing it today. Many of the Church's feasts were once given the suffix "mas" from the word Mass: Christmas is the "Christ-Mass", Candlemas' the blessing of candles on the Purification, Lammas (August 1) the "Loaf-Mass" or offering of bread. Michaelmas, or "Michael's Mass" is still used as the name for the fall term in religious schools. The proper day is September 29.

Flowers are given in memory of Jennie Fields, mother of Mrs. Edith Settle.

The sanctuary lamp candle is given in memory of William Zeltner by the Evening Group of the E.C.W.

Registration for Confirmation Class will be taken today; see the paper in the narthex. Class will be held Wednesday at 4:00 p.m.

Valley Forge Youth Conference will have a reunion today at the Abington Y.M.C.A. at Old York Road and Susquehanna.

Clergy of the Deanery will meet Tuesday at All Saints, Rhawnhurst.

The musical setting for the Eucharist is one of four provided in the Hymnal, but only one of hundreds written for the Sacrament of the Altar.

The original Name of God in the Old Testament is the Hebrew word YHWH. This Name had no vowels and was never said aloud, the term "Adonai" meaning "Lord" was used whenever the reader came to "YHWH". When the Old Testament was translated into the English language, someone invented the word "Jehovah", which had the same consonants as the original. The original Name is now used in some English Bibles, notably the Jerusalem Bible, and is pronounced "YAH-weh", which is nearer the original than "Jehovah". Many churches of the colonial period emblazoned the Hebrew letters of God's Name on their walls -

"HEAR, READ, MARK, LEARN"

-today's Collect

December 7, 1969

Flowers at the Altar are from the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mock (Barbara Brown) which was solemnized yesterday.

The sanctuary lamp candle is given in memory of Herbert Dyson. The Requiem was offered for him last Friday. May he rest in peace.

As the second candle of the Advent Wreath is lighted in preparation for Christmas, the theme of the day reminds us that the Holy Scriptures were written for our learning. As the Word made flesh, Jesus embodies the promise of God's revelation.

Christmas flowers may be donated as memorials for $3.00. Use envelopes provided. The plants may be taken home December 28.

The E.C.W. Evening Group will meet at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday to leave for their party. There will be no meeting Tuesday evening.

The dog club meets Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. Persons interested in purebred dogs, dog shows, field trials or obedience are all welcome.

The regular meeting of the Vestry will be held Thursday at 8:00 p.m.

The Rev. John McCarty, program coordinator for the Diocese, will be our guest next Sunday. Corporate Communion for men and boys will be held at 8:00 a.m. followed by breakfast. There will be a coffee hour after the 10:00 a.m. service. We hope you will welcome our guest.

Twenty-eight years ago, December 7 was also a Sunday. Americans were horrified to hear that Japanese aircraft had attacked our fleet at Pearl Harbor. And still there is war.

The sanctuary lamp candle is given in Those who donated poinsettias for the feast of Christmas may take them home today after the second service.

The whiteness of purity and joy of the Christmas event is stained red by the blood of the Innocents. The usual color for the Innocents' day is purple except when it occurs on a Sunday, when it is red.
This day was once called Childermas.

God did not desire the death of the Innocents of Bethlehem; their death was brought about by the cruelty of Herod.
God still does not will the death of His innocent ones, but through it can sometimes melt the hearts of his worldly and self-satisfied people. The faithful of the Diocese are called upon today for an offering to build and equip a dressing and treatment room for Cho Ray Hospital in Saigon, South Vietnam. A basket has been set at the Manger to receive whatever offering your heart prompts you to make.
Let us extend the love of the Christ Child to these 20th Century Innocents. Leave at the Manger today some money and a prayer.

Some 1970 Church Kalendars are for sale at 75¢ each, the profit to go to the Cyril Trubshaw died on Christmas Day.

The funeral will be Tuesday at 10 a.m.
May he + rest in peace.

There will be no service January 1.

We are using the 4th Communion musical setting during Christmastide. It is good to vary things in our worship that may lawfully be changed. We can awaken our spirit with new things to make our worship truly a living liturgy.

January 4, 1970

The candle in the sanctuary lamp is given in memory of Augusta Lewis by the Altar Guild of which she was one time head.

Holy Baptism will be ministered today after the second Eucharist to Norman Robert, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Musser.

The E.C.W. Day Group regular meeting will be Wednesday at 10:00 a.m.

The regular meeting of the Vestry is Thursday at 8:00 p.m.

The ANNUAL PARISH MEETING is set by the Vestry for Wednesday, January 21, 1970. All adult communicants are hereby notified.

You have another opportunity today (if you missed last Sunday) to make an offering to the Church's "Holy Innocents" project - a dressing and treatment room for civilian victims, including children, at Cho Ray Hospital in Saigon, South Vietnam. A prayer desk and an offering basket are at the Manager. Leave a prayer and an offering for the suffering children of Vietnam.

February 22, 1970

In the trial Liturgy the Priest introduces the administration of Communion with the words "Holy things for the People of God, etc." on page 17. Now, however, the Priest is permitted to use an alternate form: "The gifts of God for the People of God."

The Benediction from the Prayer Book is permitted before the Dismissal. Also, the Dismissal may be shortened to the form at the bottom of the opposite page; note that the People have a response.

The petitions of the Intercession on page 9 may also be varied. We may soon have a new printed form for the Intercession. If all this is disturbing, remember that the whole Church is working out new forms to express old beliefs and that it may be difficult for a while.

Tuesday is St. Matthias Day. There will not be a service that day. The birthday party at Riverview will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Altar flowers are given in memory of Augusta Lewis by her husband, Mr. A.O. Lewis.
This bulletin is given in memory of Howard E. Craven by Mrs. Elsie Craven.

United Thankoffering envelopes are in the pews today for your use.

Two candles remain lit on the Altar at the close of the second Eucharist. Our very faithful Church School teachers will make their communion from the remaining Sacrament
after the Eucharist.

The Confession and Absolution have been left out of the Liturgy in Eastertide to make a contrast with the penitential character of Lent. The sorrowful mood of the forty days of Lent is replaced by the joyful forty days of Eastertide. For the Christian, joy comes after sadness and death; thus Easter is a triumph. Such is the promise of Christ.

One hundred million Orthodox Christians observe Easter today. We have an invitation to Great Vespers at St. Nicholas Russian Orthodox Church, 817 N. 7th St., today at 3:00 p.m. Russian liturgical music is among the most beautiful in the world.

The Y.P.F. will meet tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Friday is the feast of SS. Philip and James. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 10 a.m.

QUESTION BOX: What is a Tabernacle?

It is the metal safe covered with a gold veil in the center of the Altar under the Cross. It holds the Blessed Sacrament reserved. The eucharistic Presence of Christ is always with us. This is why the Priest, Acolytes and others genuflect (bend the knee); they are saluting Christ in the Church's traditional way. God Himself is with us! The eye of faith sees Him! "Lord, evermore give us this bread."

Refreshing our memory:

Gospel means "good news", specifically about our redemption by Jesus. Thus we stand in expectation of His words.
Creed is from "credere", to believe.
The Creed we use at the Eucharist was forged out of study and controversy in 325 A.D. in Nicea, one of the Councils.

The Chi Rho is one of the earliest Christ-

superimposed over the p (r) make up the Greek

IHS is an ancient symbol for Jesus. It is composed of iota, eta and sigma, the Greek equivalents of "JES"; thus the symbol is the monogram for Jesus, even as XP is the Greek monogram for Christ. The story that IHS means "I have suffered" was invented by someone who did not know any Greek.

+ THE BLESSING OF BREAD +

V. Our help + is in the Name of the Lord.
R. WHO HATH MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.
V. The Lord be with you.
R. AND WITH THY SPIRIT.

Let us pray.

O LORD holy, Father Almighty, everlasting God, vouchsafe to bless this bread with thy spiritual benediction: that it may be to all who partake of it, health of mind
and body and a defense against every snare
of the enemy. Through the Son JESUS CHRIST
our Lord, the living bread, who came down
from heaven and giveth life and salvation
to the world; who with thee, in the unity
of the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth
God, world without end. AMEN.

Please take a portion of blessed bread
as you leave the Altar after Communion.
After grace at your table today, please break and distribute a portion of bread to each person there. We wish that you would take any extra bread remaining after the second service and give it to a friend, along with one of these bulletins, explaining its significance.

The blessing of bread is derived from a now archaic Lannas Day ("Loaf-Mass") at one time observed on August 1. It seems to us that the Gospel for Trinity VII makes it appropriate for today. Bread is symbolic of all good things which come from God.

The E.C.W. will have a special meeting on Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. to plan for the Anniversary.

The PRAYER FOR THE WHOLE STATE OF CHRIST'S CHURCH is the fixed form of intercession in the 1928 Prayer Book. We add to the Alms and Oblations the offering of our prayers for all sorts of persons and causes. Standing is appropriate to an offering, and the Exhortation which follows it directs us to kneel for the Confession, assuming we have been standing.

1895.- Seventy-fifth Anniversary Year - 1970

Altar flowers are given in memory of Herbert Dyson by his wife, Mrs. Emma Dyson.

The Sanctuary Lamp candle is given as a thankoffering by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wharton.

Saturday of this week is St. James' Day. The Eucharist will be said at 10:00 a.m.

"What hinders most the action of grace in our souls is the fact that we are no sooner in our good Master's presence than we immediately enlarge on our troubles and sins. We thereby weary our minds and weigh down our hearts with sorrow. To avoid this danger, our first sentiment should be one of joy: 'My dear Lord, it is a pleasure for me to visit You. I am happy to spend this too short hour with You.'"

Father Gross will be attending a clergy retreat this week at the Monastery of St. Mary and St. John, Cambridge, Mass. Telephone number for any need -(area code 617) 876-3037. Call person-to-person collect. A retreat is a time of spiritual refreshment, examination and commitment. Usually it is three days of silence, worship, study and contemplation. Retreats scare many Christians, but they are the source of much power, for the individual soul is cut off from other human beings by silence, to attend on God alone. (The voice is used only in worship, but, of course, the director of the retreat speaks to the individuals.) Jesus made a retreat of forty days before beginning his ministry. The "retreat" is only from business, not from reality! "Quiet days" are one-day retreats.

It is interesting to note that Thursday would be the seventh anniversary of the parish house fire. This week thank God for all his mercies!

* The familiar hymn (#599) sung as the Offertory, deserves closer reading. Verse 1 refers to the medieval classification of angels; verse 2 to the Blessed Virgin Mary; verse 3 to patriarchs, prophets, apostles and martyrs; verse 4 to us, the Church here on earth. Heaven and earth join forces to worship God. "Alleluia" is the Hebrew shout: "Praise God!"

"Michaelmas" is upon us! One of several feasts with the old English suffix "mas", it is more fully titled the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels. In Church-related schools, the fall term is often called the Michaelmas term. The feast asserts the Christian belief, even in the 20th Century, in angels, the spiritual servants of God.

St. Michael's Day occurs on Tuesday. Holy Eucharist will be offered at 10:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Those who are working on items for the dinner will work after the evening Eucharist. Won't you come?

Father Gross will go to Leany Hone in the Chestnut Hill - Mount Airy region. He plans to arrive about 4:00 p.m. Evening Prayer is at 4:45, followed by supper. If you want to go along, tell Fr. Gross.

The 187th Diocesan Convention will convene at the Sheraton Hotel Friday afternoon and Saturday.

Thursday is the Jewish feast of Rosh Hashonah ("head of the year"). Send greetings to your Jewish friends. Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, will be October 9. The Church is the New Israel, spiritual descendants of ancient Israel.

Next Sunday is the big day! The anniversary dinner will be at Four Chefs.

The Church School teachers will have a corporate communion and breakfast next Sunday at 8:00 a.m.

The names of the faithful departed will be remembered at two special Parish Requiems on All Souls Day, Monday, November 2 at 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. (You might call this the whole Church's Memorial Day.) Please return the All Souls envelopes with names to be remembered by Wednesday of this week at the latest. You should also be on hand on November 2 to pray for the dead.

Hallowe'en gets its name by "compressing" All Hallows Even into one word. Superstitious people believe that the dead come forth on this night, but the Church never taught that. The worship on All Saints Day, though now done by the minority, is far healthier than the goings-on of Hallowe'en.
